Do you know Abraham?

Mark each statement as True or False

T F   1. His birth name was Abram, not Abraham

T F   2. He was born in Ur, a town that would be in present-day eastern Iraq.

T F   3. He was 75 years old when God told him to move to a land he would show him.

T F   4. After he got to the land he had been promised, a famine struck, forcing him to move on to Egypt.

T F   5. While in Egypt, fearing for his own life, he claimed that his wife was actually his unmarried sister and then gave her to the pharaoh.

T F   6. Later, while in the land of Gerar, he told the king of that land that his wife was his unmarried sister, giving her to him.

T F   7. Since Abraham's wife was barren (unable to have children), Abraham impregnated his wife's own handmaiden in order to secure an heir.

T F   8. When God told him that his wife was to give birth at the age of 90, Abraham laughed so hard that he fell down.

T F   9. Giving in to his wife's ire, Abraham banished the maid and their son to the wilderness, providing them with only a small amount of food and water for the trip.

T F   10. Initially, Abraham disobeyed God's command to sacrifice his son Isaac, attempting to hide him from God.